

Time to relax in incredibly beautiful surroundings

The Sheldrick Family have welcomed people to stay in the haven of Port Ban for over 50 years.

Offering a 'wee taste of heaven on the West Coast' Port Ban Holiday Park has a distinctive flavour all of its own, combining a family atmosphere offering tranquility, secluded beaches and stunning views of Islay and Jura.

It has got to be one of the most glorious locations in the world.

Gavin Sinclair

Port Ban is tucked away in the heart of Argyll, along the wild and remote western coastline of the Knapdale Peninsula, only 100 miles (2.5hr drive) from Glasgow – on the incredibly beautiful National Cycle Route 78 that runs between Oban and Campbeltown.

The view over the sea to the islands of Jura and Islay is terrific - beautiful in sunshine, dramatic and awe-inspiring in cloud and rain. It's my favourite view in the UK.

Our top 6 choices to visit off site...

Wildlife Cruises depart daily with the opportunity to see minke whales, bottlenose dolphins, basking shark and porpoise and visit the Corryvreckan Whirlpool. Craignish Cruises, Venture West and Sea-fari all offer regular trips.

Isle of Gigha

A small island off the west coast of Kintyre, accessible by roll-on, roll-off ferry from Tayinloan, has been transformed by a community buy-out in 2002. This beautiful island boasts abundant wildlife, beautiful beaches and the renowned Achamore Gardens (50acres+).

the kilberry inn Just down the road from Port Ban! The Kilberry Inn is an award-winning restaurant which holds a Michelin Bib Gourmand, is recognised in the Good Hotel Guide and offers 'really tasty, uncomplicated food in a relaxed and comfortable atmosphere'.

Crinan Canal

A picturesque 9-mile walk from Ardrishaig on Loch Fyne to Crinan on the Sound of Jura taking in 15 locks and a climb of 65ft above sea level.

Kilmartin House Museum

A small and wonderful local museum with some great and varied archaeological exhibits (some interactive for children) and an award winning café and shop. Great for a wet afternoon.
